

Indian data an AI policy:

British raj – telegraph act – meant to regulate how telegraph can be used in India – first act

Til today all telecommunication services follow it

Amendment was drafted but failed to pass - If it passes – all discords users are illegal and need license to use zoom.

First case on privacy – M.P Sharma vs Satish Chandra – 1954

In America – u can't give evidence against you (written in their constitution)

1964 case – many rights were obtained, cannot disturb at night even if you are a criminal

Cannot arrest a woman at night, cannot arrest without a women officer

1976 case – reversed the previous judgements

Navtej Singh Johar – important case – right to privacy – article 377: prohibited Unnatural sexual acts
– legal to be heterosexual but illegal to be homosexual – right to life incorporated right to dignity

Puttaswamy vs Indian Union – supreme court openly accepted privacy(article 21)